ANNOUNCEMENTS

We pledged our allegiance to our flag then Bob lead us in song.

George Baily once again found the inspiring words of appreciation for bringing us together and for our meal to share.

Pete filled in for Laura with announcing our tasty meal – get well quick Laura, we miss you.

We were glad to welcome Ron Schimpf back and guests John Weldon and Greg Schorr. We hope they might like to join us.

Dick Arthur presented us with his Rotary story as our member “Be Our Guest” of the evening. He told us Len Porter brought him in and that he, in turn, brought in Bob and Ken. Thanks Len!

It was humbling yet a proud moment to present Bill Longeran with multiple Paul Harris pins, one and two. This was a little confusing as Bill already has a one.

Mike, as always, entertained us with collecting Happy Dollars, especially with his banter with Bill Mc Clary. Where can you have so much fun for a buck or two?

I don't think we had a photographer to capture Bill's moment.

John Weldon had some tickets for the Ziti Dinner at the Glenville Senior Center on Feb. 5th

Val had reminded us that dues are due.

Hope I remembered everything but it was a short meeting.

A “Be our Guest” drawing by Dick Arthur came up with George Baily for a free meal and what promises to be another great Rotary Story.

Meeting adjourned.

Serve with us – the world is waiting
