Viewing the Town in Bloom Sites

We had a great group of participants at our tour of the 6 Town in Bloom beautification sites.

Beginning at 5:30 we met at the South Sign on Rt 50 and shared cars to drive to and stop and look at the following:

We admired the bright yellow mums added to the barrels at the corner of Lake Hill and Kingsley Road. At the Library sign, Gini caught up with us and took the group picture. Next, we traveled to the North sign on Rt. 50.

We were joined there by Linda and Patrice who volunteered to go ahead to Pizza Works and secure our back room meeting space. At the Town Hall we noted that the yellow marigolds out did the geraniums this year. At Jenkins Park we noted the plantings we added this year to the established perennials. To conclude, we returned to the South sign, and agreed that our efforts there are beginning to show. We did a little special analysis for that site for next year. Back into our original cars and to Pizza Works for a social time.

At Pizza Works, we were joined by more Rotarians and Izzy Holt from our Interact Club, or Junior Rotary as she calls it. Izzy told us about a kick ball benefit for an elementary child with cancer. Laura Kriegel shared her part of the exciting fall festival at Camp Stomping Ground that she and her staff were planning. We enjoyed each other and Linda's announcement that she had just learned that the little girl abducted from Moreau Park had been found.

Get ready for our annual Election Day Event, poster to right. Patrice Spingarn & Mary Anderson are working to engage every member in this fun, community event... the 50th Apple Pie Festival!!!

November 7 at BH-BL Middle School on Lake Hill Rd, same price as last year: $8 per ticket, same music, the Melody Makers.

Tickets are ready to be picked up at Gil's when you bring your donation for the Galway Food Bank, or at the Oct. 23 meeting. We need to actively invite, sell, and promote because the cost of pies has increased, but the fun for meeting and greeting friends in this annual setting remains the same. More information and a sign-up sheet and email message will be sent.
